

Overview of Academic Council

What : Clayton Valley Charter Academic Council.

Why : The overarching goal is to instate a system and structure where representatives across various stakeholder groups work together and build capacity toward achieving a greatness envisioned for CVCHS academic programs.

When : The entire Council will meet a minimum of three times a year... more if decided by the group and based on need. The aim for time together is organized, collaborative, strategic work rooted in addressing goals outlined in the Charter, WASC and LCAP. Once established, Council subcommittees May meet more frequently and address goals .

Who: The Academic Council is composed of a core that includes leaders-in-place representing various Academic programming at CVCHS - as well, students and parent representatives. Ultimately, subcommittees will form from the Council leveraging the unique skill set each brings to our school. Subcommittees will provide opportunity for staff, students and community beyond the Council to join in partnership and build capacity. Examples of subcommittees may include: Professional Learning, EdTech, Literacy, Character Education and more.
